LOOKOUTS SAW THE FIRE

A Pearl Street Bag-Factory Blaze Signalled in the Old Way.

H. Brewer & Co.'s bag factory building. which is one of Pearl street's best-known dmarks, caught fire at 7.80 this morn ing, but in spite of the many drawback the fremen were notified and arrived in time

Clark, of Engine 39, posted on his lofty look-Palitner Building, saw beavy, black clouds of rolling up from a building in the vicinity of Pearl street and Counties allp. The smoke from no factory could make such a smudge, and Clark's trained eye at once told sim that he had seen a fire.

In accordance with his instructions he at once jumped into THE WORLD'S private eleva-tor and was quickly lowered from the lotty me to the ground, and ran at the top of his speed to Engine House 7 and Hook and Ladder House 1, at Chambers and Centre streets, Where he gave a "still alarm."

Engine and truck were at once started to the scene of the fire just as Battation Chief Cashman's driver dashed up with the second to Engine House 12, at William and New Chambers streets, to give the alarm to the fire laddles there.

Meanwhile Policeman Malone, upon who post the fire was, had run to Hook and Ladde 15's house in Old slip, near Front street, and given a "still slarm," and from there three siarms were sent out to all downtown house connected by wire. By this means en ines 4. 6, 7, 10, 19 and 29 and nooks 1, 10 and 15 wer dily sesembled and under Battation Chiefe speedily assembled and under Battalion Chiefs Cashman and Purroy the firemen were quickly at work upon the flames.
